A summer tennis camp led by Steve Smith, Founder of GreatBase Tennis is anything but a typical tennis camp. Steve has developed an uncommon approach to teaching the game based on common sense. He has a lifetime of experience studying tennis teaching masters and proven methodologies. Steve's skill-set is far above the industry norm; he is competent, demanding, and refreshingly honest. Participants will learn to both play and teach based on fact-based instruction. Work-ethic, character, and detailed principles for being a successful student-athlete will be taught. The results of Steve's students, both players and coaches, are remarkable.
